DEAR TRIBUNE: The circular letter of National Relief Corps Home Board, appealing to the Woman's Relief Corps for funds for the needy Army Nurses, and later the appeal of Annie Wittenmyer, Chairman of the Home Board, have appeared in your columns. In response, sufficient funds came into the National treasury to send out early in February to 48 Nurses, all most needy, a small remittance

As the replies indicated how much this and still more was needed, the Home Board were very anxious to send another remittance early in March to these and others since reported. Later the delegates visited the Geneva pubic schools, where the salute has been introduced through the instrumentality of Bowers Relief Corps, and witnessed the beautiful salutation by the school children. If we do not feel happy, if we worry and grumble, if we are morbid, if the days seem dreary and long, if the weather is bad, if things go awry, it is the liver which is at fault. It is generally "torpid." A common sense way is to take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. RECENT LITERATURE.

IF CHRIST CAME TO CHICAGO." By William T. Stead. Published by Laird & Lee, Chicago. Price, in paper, 50 cents.

The author, a famous English literary man, the founder of the Review of Reviews, and one time editor of the Pall Mall Gazette, bas for four months studied Chicago as the typical city of the world in corruption and greatness. The most interesting lessons of the age are embodied in this book by that brilliant and incisive writer. Mr. Stead says of his book: " My object is to point out that if any substantial progress is to be made toward a better social system which should deliver the people from the evils under which they are at present suffering, it is absolutely necessary for all good citizens to put more religion into their politics. My whole book is a plea supported by a survey of the condition of things as they exist in Chicago for a revival of civic religion. To put it into a nutshell, if Christ came to Chicago He would go into politics and endeavor to bring about the Kingdom of Heaven here and now by recognizing the responsibilities and fulfilling the obligations which are incumbent upon every good citizen in a democratic state. I came from a city which is enjoying the first fruits of a civic revival, the signs of which are visible enough on every side in Chicago. Hence, I came as a messenger of hope, speaking words of good cheer and encouragement. London is a great city, greater even than Chicago, with a population almost as cosmopolitan, weighed down with a multitude of evils which are here his worst enemies of boodling; neither have we a single saloon-keeper on that council or a person of disrepute. Natural development of character and plot and pure and lofty sentiment, are qualities which have ever distinguished Miss Douglas's work, and won for her a multitude of readers. In none of her stories are these qualities more marked than in this beautiful story of Christian endeavor. The book is pervaded by a deep religious sentiment; the hearts of the readers being touched, and a desire for better things awakened. The story appeals strongly to all lovers of pure fiction, and will be of special interest to members of the Society of Christian
